TEN YEAR GOALS

1. To serve with respect and love
2. Live debt free and bless others
3. Live and work near water and/or horses
4. Attract a full-time salaried service role, while working continuing to work part-time growing my company in order to roll out the global initiative, Connecting The Dots With The Respect Principle, raising the standard of living and quality of life of all people ... because every child should know by their own experience, they are valued ... respected ... simply for being a life ... because of my belief and understanding everyone matters
5. Rent my own home close to my salaried work in order to be able to choose green transportation options of walking and cycling, though having the option to drive my car when required or desired
6. Sell the film/television rights to ...
 - a) The children's series or movie, Little Jack
 - b) The short story, Dark Horses ... More Than You Believe
 - c) My story, A Charmed Life
7. Attract the funds to ...
 - a) Produce, direct, film, and present the play, Charles' Choice, introducing the "Connecting The Dots With The Respect Principle" concept to schools and communities
 - b) Publish in print and in audio book format my 11 published ebooks and any upcoming new ebooks, including, RESPECT ... The Way Back Into Love
 - c) Establish the yet-to-be-named foundation to provide free books, products, and services to schools and communities that do not have the resources to buy them from the for-profit company, Connecting The Dots With The Respect Principle. In the future, the foundation will also become the recipient/owner of all of the company's intellectual capital so the work will continue as long as it is needed
8. Generate more than one million in sales to begin recruiting the team to install Connecting The Dots With The Respect Principle books, products, and services in schools, communities, and prisons, plus to the public
9. Find the location and begin the process of establishing Spirit Ranch as the company office, foster home, alternative school, and self-sustaining ranch
10. Establish the company's American office on California's north coast in Mendocino County
